Resolved by the Senate, the Assembly concurring, That the Constitution of the State of Nevada be amended as follows:

Amend section 1 of Article IV. of the Constitution of the State of Nevada so as to read as follows:

Section one. Every male citizen of the United States (not inhering under the disability of insanity or in his Constitution) of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, who shall have been seven years in this State, and who shall have been at least six months a resident in the State six months prior to the election, shall be entitled to vote for all officers that now or hereafter may be elected by the people and upon all questions submitted to the electors at such election; provided no person, who has been or may be convicted of selling his vote or purchasing the vote of another any such election, and no person who has been or may be convicted of treason or felony in any State or Territory in the United States, unless restored to civil rights; and no person who, after arriving at the age of eighteen years, shall have voluntarily borne arms against the United States; and no idiot or insane person shall be entitled to the privilege of an elector.

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 22 (of the fifteenth session)—Relative to amending the Constitution of the State of Nevada.

Resolved by the Senate, the Assembly concurring, That the Constitution of the State of Nevada be amended as follows:

Amend section 6 of Article IV. of the Constitution of the State of Nevada so as to read as follows:

Section six. Each house shall judge of the qualifications, elections, and returns of its own members, choose its own officers, determine the rules of its proceedings, and may punish its members for disorderly conduct, and with the concurrence of two-thirds of all the members elected, expel a member.

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 24 (of the fifteenth session)—Relative to amending the Constitution of the State of Nevada.

Resolved by the Senate, the Assembly concurring, That the Constitution of the State of Nevada be amended as follows:

Amend section 33 of Article IV. of the Constitution of the State of Nevada so as to read as follows:

Section thirty-three. The members of the Legislature shall receive for their services a compensation to be fixed by law and paid out of the public treasury, but no increase of such compensation shall take effect during the term for which the members of either house shall have been elected; provided, that an appropriation may be made for the payment of such actual expenses as members of the Legislature may incur for postage, express charges, newspapers and stationery, not exceeding the sum of twenty dollars for any general or special session to each member; and, furthermore provided, that the Speaker of the Assembly and President of the Senate shall each, during the time of their actual attendance as such presiding officers, receive an additional allowance of two dollars per diem.
